

All about the Live audition procedure

1. Who can apply to the IOA?

Students eligible to register for the selection process must not be older than 32 and must have completed a programme in classical singing or piano (Bachelor or Master) OR have equivalent experience, upon the start of the next IOA academic year.

2. What is expected?

You apply via the official audition form on the IOA website:

www.ioacademy.be/auditions

You read the instructions below carefully before you finish the form.

In the form you choose the applicable option:

1. singer or pianist => 2. live audition.

3. Audition form: instructions

1. Personal information (incl. Portrait picture), contact information & extra information:

Education: give an overview of your education in chronological order: schools, dates, subjects, degrees, masterclasses etc. Please state your highest degree/diploma in music and/or other subjects.

Teachers: give an overview of your voice teachers in chronological order: schools, names, dates.

Experience: give an overview of your stage experience: role, opera, director, conductor, company, theatre, date, etc

Motivation: why you apply to the IOA.

2. Upload resume, upload passport and upload a full length photo.

3. Audition repertoire

CANDIDATE-SINGER

- Read all information in the form well (cf. 4. what can you expect)
- Indicate the title, opera & composer 3 arias of your choice: one in Italian with secco recit, one in German and one in French.
- Indicate the author and title of a poem or a text in English that you know by heart (source: libretto, theatre play, poem or prose).

CANDIDATE-REPETITEUR

- Read all information in the form well (cf. 4. what can you expect)
- Indicate the opera & composer of a fragment of your choice from an opera written after 1800 (ensemble, NOT in Italian, 5-10 minutes long)
- Indicate the author and title of a poem or a text in English that you know by heart (source: libretto, theatre play, poem or prose).

4. Explain where you learned about the IOA

4. Audition: what can you expect?

Audition procedure for Singers:

1. Brief personal presentation by the candidate.
2. Performance:
 - a. Prepare and bring music of 3 arias (in 2 copies) – of which one in Italian with secco recit, one in German and one in French.
Note: Arias are performed without scores;
 - b. Bring a poem or text in English that you know by heart (source: libretto, theatre play, poem or prose).
3. Brief final interview:
 - a. The candidate will be asked to talk about motivation, background and personality, to demonstrate insight in the domain of opera and knowledge of languages.

Audition procedure for Repetiteurs:

1. Brief personal presentation by the candidate.
2. Performance:
 - a. The finale of Don Giovanni (complete from "Già la mensa preparata", including scena ultima) played and sung, partly conducted;
 - b. A fragment of your choice from an opera written after 1800 (ensemble, NOT in Italian, 5-10 mins long), played and sung;
 - c. Bring a poem or text in English that you know by heart (source: libretto, theatre play, poem or prose).
3. Brief final interview:
 - a. The candidate will be asked to talk about motivation, background and personality, to demonstrate insight in the domain of opera and knowledge of languages.

5. Warm-up and accompaniment

Candidates will be able to do a pre-audition warm-up.

Singers may bring their own accompanist or may use the accompanist provided by the International Opera Academy.

6. The IOA selection process

The week after the deadline (10/06/2022) you will receive a practical email with the time slot of your audition on 18 June 2022 at the International Opera Academy in Ghent. You audition for the Head of Music and the General Director of the IOA. The recording of your audition will be judged by a professional jury that same week. A follow up conversation online might be requested. The decision of the professional jury will be announced to the candidates via the administration in the week of 20 June 2022. New students will have to complete their enrollment before 29 June 2022 at midnight. This admission is only valid for the following academic year (1 October 2022 – 1 July 2023).

7. Selection criteria

The following aspects are taken into consideration in the jury's review throughout auditions:

1. Musical (singing/piano) technique:
 - a. Students are able to 'decipher' a score's musical line quickly and fluently;
 - b. Students understand the score's expression and other indications;
 - c. Students possess the technical potential to sing the arias and ensembles of the repertoire within their respective Fach;
 - d. Students demonstrate a basic knowledge of the existence and content of different musical styles (baroque, classicism, etc.; 'national' styles; specific composers' styles).
2. Language knowledge (in communication and in used repertoire):
 - a. Students are able to express themselves fluently in English;
 - b. Students demonstrate basic levels (esp. regarding musical diction and expression) of Italian, French, German and English.
3. Interpretation;
4. Presentation (posture, stage presence);
5. Growing potential;
6. Motivation.

8. Information about the IOA programme

Please contact the educational coordinator for more info and questions about the educational programme via info@ioacademy.be or consult our website: www.ioacademy.be/programme